Tampa, FL (August 31, 2011) – Bayshore Baptist Church is pleased to invite the community to a brown bag lunch presentation. On Wednesday, September 14, Akilah founder and Tampa native, Elizabeth Dearborn Davis, will bring Akilah students to speak about Rwanda and their experiences at Akilah. A short presentation will be shared. Iced tea and cookies will be served.

The Akilah Institute

Akilah transforms the lives of young women by empowering them with the skills, knowledge, and confidence to find meaningful employment and to serve as leaders in their communities. The Akilah Institute for Women is a college for young women in Kigali, Rwanda. Akilah has developed an innovative model which emphasizes leadership development, practical training, and entrepreneurial skills. Akilah currently offers a two-year Hospitality Management. Degrees in Agricultural Sciences and Business Management & Entrepreneurship will be offered in 2012. Many students are survivors of the 1994 genocide which ripped apart the country for 100 days. Young Rwanda women grew up as survivors, without the guidance of elders or mentors, forging their own paths.

Bayshore is excited to host this event for the second year in a row. Those who attended last year were moved and inspired by the stories of these courageous young women who demonstrate reconciliation as they have had the courage to overcome atrocities and live forgiveness often amongst those who have done their families harm. Find out more about Akilah online at www.AkilahInstitute.org.
