CBF Responds to Hurricane Ian

Cooperative Baptist Fellowship continues its work of providing disaster relief in the wake of Hurricane Ian last week. Damages continue to be assessed for homes as well as CBF ministries like Cultivate Abundance that provides much-needed food resources to local immigrants and refugees in Immokalee, FL. This small rural community reported significant damage to their gardens, which provides much-needed food resources to local immigrants and refugees. Please continue to remember our neighbors to the south in your prayers, and consider making a gift to relief efforts at www.cbf.net/dr-give.
